The Forbidden City in Beijing was the Chinese Imperial Palace during the mid-Ming and the Qing Dynasties. It was listed by UNESCO as the largest collection of preserved ancient wooden structures in the world. Ancient Chinese Astronomers believed that the Purple Star (Polaris) was in the center of heaven and the Heavenly Emperor lived in the Purple Palace. The Palace for the emperor on earth was so called the Purple City. It was forbidden to enter without special permission of the emperor. Hence its name 'The Purple Forbidden City', usually 'The Forbidden City'.
